Pilsner Originally from the town of Plzen in the Czech Republic. Straw colored with moderate hop aromas and a good light malt balance.

Stouts - these beers fall under the branch of Dark Ale. They are set apart from the rest with the use of malt-free, dark-roasted barley, minimal hops, and sweet, chocolate scents.

Pale Ales generally medium bodied with a nice malt and hop balance with a lot of hop aroma and flavor.

IPA (India Pale Ale) Originally brewed stronger and hoppier than other styles to survive the boat ride from Britain to India. Intensely hoppy and bitter.
